Plates

- Cover one end of a cardboard tube with bubble wrap and secure with tape.
- Mix blue and white paint on a plate and dip the bubble wrapped end of the cardboard tube into the paint.
- Stamp a clean piece of paper with the bubble wrap.
- Notice the unique texture with bubble wrap leaves on the paper.
- Make sure to cover the whole paper.
- Take another cardboard tube and use scissors to make cuts more than halfway down it.
- Make sure to make cuts all around the cardboard tube at even intervals.
- Fold the cut ends of the cardboard tube until they flat.
- Mix red, orange, and yellow paint on another plate.
- Dip the flat ends of the cardboard tube into the paint.
- With the flattened cardboard tube end, stamp the mixed warm colors on the paper over the blue marks left by the bubble wrap.
- Notice the different shapes left behind.
- Now you have a simple print.
